CONTEMPORARY

Just 7 kilometres from the Perth CBD, St James offers a central and connected lifestyle with the convenience of city living and the charm of a close-knit suburb. Residents enjoy easy access to Curtin University, local shops, cafés, medical services, and major transport routes, all while being surrounded by leafy streets and welcoming community spaces. With its blend of accessibility, diversity, and supportive amenities, St James is an ideal place to live, connect, and belong.

In this setting, our Specialist Disability Accommodation provides more than just a place to live—it opens the door to belonging. Purpose-built homes designed to NDIS standards meet the diverse needs of residents, while the supportive, inclusive community fosters independence and connection. A combination of natural beauty, accessible amenities, and a strong sense of community - an opportunity to truly thrive.
